What is TDI?

Summer camp meets academic institute!

TDI is...

- A program for high-ability, creative, talented, and gifted students, in its twenty-first year at beautiful Johnson State College campus (now Northern Vermont University).
- An enriching and delightful week which combines the relaxed atmosphere of summer camp with new academic & creative opportunities, with overnight and commuter options.
- A place where kids go to learn, to grow and have fun with other bright and gifted children, and with teachers who are understanding and supportive of their gifts and talents.
- A variety of classes, ranging from TDI on Broadway, to Debate with Data, to Tinkering, to Writing and Laughing, to Tabletop Collaborative Storytelling, to Quidditch.
- A place where learning is rewarding in more ways than one, especially with dynamic faculty and stimulating peers.
